

Job Title: Senior Quantity Surveyor

Name of Company: Aedas Limited

Responsibilities:

- Directly reporting to the Contracts Manager, and cross reporting to Managing Director of the region
- Responsible for a wide range of duties including administration of main contracts and subcontracts, sub-consultant's claim, and preparation of VO
- Responsible for VO submission; follow up VO assessment; preparation of interim payment application; formulation of EOT claim and loss & expense claim
- Assist in construction contractual matters (including contract drafting, contract review, advise on contract claim dispute resolution) in different countries
- Assist in contract negotiation with developers, sub-consultants and other parties
- Overseas travel may be required

Requirements:

- Degree in Quantity Surveying/Engineering
- Minimum 5 years of experience related to project costing/construction/contractual management/QS experience
- MHKIS/MRICS or equivalent preferably
- Relevant experience in large-scale mixed use development is advantageous
- Able to work independently from strategic VO planning to submission of VO claim (including information collection and compilation, interim negotiation with client, etc.)

Application Deadline : 13 September 2013

Contact Person : Ralph Leung (ralph.leung@aedas.com)