Abstract

Mr. Eric Tsang has over 20 years experience in construction industry particularly in the fields of safety & environmental management and environmental engineering in infra-structure projects. He has extensive experience in conducting environmental impact assessment, carrying out EM&A programmes, public relations for complex, environmental sensitive projects. He has also been involved in civil & environmental engineering work of different major projects for public and private sectors.

This seminar highlights the current environmental & safety practices in the construction sites, particularly in infrastructure projects, based on the personal encounters of the Speaker. Topics on environmental pollution issues, health and safety at work and payments for safety & environmental works will be discussed and shared with our practitioners.

Priority will be given to ICES members, thereafter place will be allocated on the "first come, first served" basis. Please register on-line via www.cices.org.hk/home.php or fax the reply form to the attention of Mr. Jacob Lam at 21487277. The number of participants is limited to 70.
