Content	In Hong Kong the low-carbon transition is already underway which pushes the shift to low carbon emission in all sectors. To address the climate protection and carbon reduction Alliance has measured the carbon footprint of their aggregates and concrete operations since 2008 and has the embodied carbon of their concrete products measured. In this seminar, the speakers would introduce some of the rocks products and concrete mixes that are used in Hong Kong, and the eco-conscious sourcing/ production procedures of them.
